02. Projects

Devlink
Github API, React, Redux, Express, MongoDB

Built a social network service tailored for developers. Implemented frontend with React and Redux, constructed and stored data in MongoDB, and implemented an API backend with Express. User can create and display professional profile, view other users' profiles, and interact with them on the discussion board by writing posts or leaving comments. User authentication implemented with JWT tokens.

Melon
Spotify API, React, Express, Redux

Designed and implemented a music curation service using the Spotify Web API. User can browse Spotify's music catalogue by genres and moods, select among related playlists, and listen to 30-second preview of songs in the playlist. Handled user authentication with Spotify OAuth in an Express backend.

Paperplane
Chatkit API, React, Express

Created a chat application using the Chatkit API. Built the frontend with React and connected it to an Express backend to handle API interactions. User can send/receive messages real-time, while being able to track which users are currently online.

Pok'em!
React

Implemented an e-commerce interface that allows users to browse and filter a catalogue of products, as well as add products to their shopping cart.

Notes
React, Redux, Firebase

Built a note-taking application, implementing data persistence with Firebase real-time database and state management with Redux. User is provided with CRUD functionalities, as well as feature to archive notes or flag them as important.
